Novel H1N1 Influenza – A Health Center Update Online

Novel H1N1 Influenza – A Health Center Update

On November 3, 2009 NACHC hosted a webinar featuring speakers from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, HRSA, and the Bureau of Primary Health Care. Listen in to hear the latest information about H1N1 infection, anti-viral treatment recommendations, and vaccine production, distribution, and the ACIP priority groups. In addition, hear from HRSA on preparing for H1N1 and get clarity on FTCA coverage and the PREP Act as they relate to H1N1. Speakers: Dr. Tom Shimabukuro, Deputy Director, H1N1 Vaccine Task Force, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC); George Smith, Director of Emergency Preparedness and Continuity of Operations, Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA); and Tracey Orloff, Senior Advisor in the Office of the Associate Administrator, Bureau of Primary Health Care (BPHC) in HRSA.
